Valley's Civic Leaders To Confer With Sheriff

A delegation jointly representing most of Carmel Valley's civic and religious groups as well as the schools will call upon Sheriff Jack Davenport on Friday, March 6 at 9:00 a. m. to discuss Carmel Valley's problems with juvenile delinquency. Chief purpose, according to Col. George Brown of the CV Property Owners Association, is "to learn more about the problems of the Sheriff's department and to determine what our community can do to be of assistance." Davenport sent word to the group that he was extremely pleased by this plan.

Between them, the committee represents not only the CVPOA (which organized the visit), and the school system, but the CV Chamber of Commerce, the CV Community Center, Inc., the CV Women's Club, and an observer from the CV League of Women Voters.

Traveling with Col. Brown to Salinas will be John Sigourney, Lou Gardner, William Mallek, Mrs. Milton Frumkin, Rex White, Mrs. Irving Ollason and the Reverends James Brock and Don Johnson. (Father Voytko was also in-

CV Student Group Saturday Movies Earn $500 for Pool

Nearly $500 has been contributed to the CV Community Swimming Pool fund from the proceeds of the Saturday afternoon movies presented weekly by the Carmel Valley Student Youth Group. In accepting the donation at a special meeting last week, the board of directors of the Carmel Valley Community Center voted a "special commendation" to Kit Parker, Roger Gardner, and Jan, Jackie, and Dwight Jones who have carried the responsibility of the weekly showings.

Kit Parker, a sophomore at Carmel High School, obtains schedules, and edits the films, takes care of the advertising, and acts as projectionist. He is unusually experienced in such matters, having for some time performed similar responsibilities for the Carmel Valley Gem & Mineral Society.

Roger Gardner, also a CHS sophomore, loads the coke machine, sells tickets and candy. Jan Jones, a high school senior, has been providing fresh, hot popcorn.

To insure an orderly audience, there is always an adult "on duty". Projectionist Parker is very proud of the quality of the films he is now able to obtain.

"The films coming up this month and from then on are films that all ages can really enjoy." Up to now, he says, he has been showing "budget films--just to get going. From now on, we can afford the finest!"

ST. DUNSTAN'S EPISCOPAL BEGINS CHURCH CONSTRUCTION

"No church is built without struggle and sacrifice," Rev. James Brock of St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church told his congregation at the groundbreaking ceremonies last Sunday on the 3-acre parcel near Farm Center which was purchased by the church in 1956. "St. Dunstan's has certainly carried itself through this period of hardship, and we know that through the power of the Holy Spirit our work will be brought to completion," said the Rev. Brock.

Construction of the church began Monday by contractors Daniels and House. Architect Mel Blevens, Valley resident and a member of St. Dunstan's, drew the plans; a sketch of these has previously appeared in the Outlook.

Members of St. Dunstan's traveled to the site following their regular 11:00 a. m. services at the Carmel Valley Community Center. Breaking ground with the Rev. Brock were Rudolph Ploense, who was the first communicant of St. Dunstan's when it was founded in 1955; Mrs. Ploense and Mrs. Emma Shoemaker, who were among the earliest communicants and Harry Townsend, chairman of the building committee. Also participating in the ceremonies were Captain Philip Mothersill, church warden, and Ned Sinclair, church school superintendent.

Also present at the ceremony were the Rev. Peter Farmer of All Saints Church, Carmel, and the Rev. George Ridgeway, Jr., of St. James Church, Monterey.

The church's three acres are located on Robinson Canyon Road and were originally purchased by the late Rt. Rev. Karl Morgan Block from the late Edison Holt, who died in San Francisco earlier this month. The land on which the church will stand was part of the 18,000 acre Holt Ranch, the bulk of which was sold in 1962 to Del Monte Properties.

In 1956, St. Dunstan's also acquired its vicarage on Palisades Road on Holt Tract, a small subdivision on the hill located above Farm Center. The present vicarage was built by Ed Mayfield and was occupied by his family when first constructed.

Kiwanis To Sponsor Free Hearing Tests Saturday in CV Village

Free hearing tests for people of all ages will be given tomorrow, Thursday, February 27, in a professionally staffed laboratory with complete audiological testing equipment, which will be parked in front of the Carmel Valley General Store. On behalf of the Hearing Aid Bank recently organized by the Boys and Girls Committee of Carmel Valley Kiwanis Club, the local Kiwanians are sponsoring the all-day event.

The mobile hearing laboratory, first of its kind, is a converted 65-passenger Crown Super Coach valued in excess of $10,000, according to John W. "Bud" Hilpert of Robles Del Rio, president and general manager of Beltone Peninsula Company.

Not only will the hearing tests be given free of charge, Hilpert told the Outlook, but free limousine service will be provided also, for retired or elderly citizens without transportation.

Ken VanHagen, co-owner of the Carmel Valley General Store and a loyal Kiwanian, will take requests for transportation. For a round trip in a courtesy limousine, retired or elderly citizens should call the General Store, 659-2283.

But there's more! Mr. VanHagen also announces that a valuable gift will be donated by the General Store to all adults who have their hearing tested.

Children under 18 may be tested only if accompanied by parents or a responsible adult. Otherwise, the tests cannot be given.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mrs. Branch:

I have covered your latest newspaper in full and I will stand up and say:

Parents: watch those girls! In fact, Community: watch these young horseback riders in sun halters cantering along highways and byways or meandering along in automobiles.

I am sure the young girl riders and drivers are well aware of what transpires at Camp Steffani and other locales of the Valley. Where the gals go the boys follow; from Monterey, the Valley, Sea-side or anywhere.

The only solution I might suggest is -- Parents of daughters, watch them because when they are on a horse or in a car you will never know their whereabouts.

Parents of boys - the same, but for boys, I believe, if you can brag high moral standards as parents you will have less trouble with boys, but with girls it makes very little difference what your standards are. If you give them freedom to go on their own at too early an age they will find trouble at Camp Steffani or anywhere in the U.S.A.

And, Outlook: Stop printing anonymous letters regarding juvenile problems in Carmel Valley Stop printing anything but facts. Your last edition contained letters of what people and parents wanted to believe -- not facts. An opinion page is fine as long as it doesn't consume the entire paper.

Sincerely,
Ruth Allaire

Dear Editor,

I certainly disagree with Jack Davenport's objections to what he calls a deputized citizen Certainly, if he were to pin a star on every citizen who wanted one we would, naturally, have nothing but trouble.

But there are many what we call auxiliary departments in our law enforcement agencies who perform their duties well because of knowledge of law enforcement. I am talking from experience as I was an auxiliary officer of the Gilroy police department until my transfer to this area. We had more auxiliary officers than regular police To qualify, our fingerprints were checked and we heard lectures from the Santa Clara County Sheriff's office, narcotics agents, and the California Highway Patrol, plus many films and training on police radio to increase our knowledge of the law and of the most used codes.

I won't go into the functions of the auxiliary department as it would take too much space but I do want to mention that I have seen many men discharged when they couldn't take orders or when they tried to run the law their own way -- as well as for other reasons.

Yes, Jack, this community could use a deputized department which would be operated according to lawful procedures - not a vigilante group.

Dear Mrs. Branch,

We are writing to express our appreciation for the stand the Outlook has taken in regard to the current juvenile delinquency problem here in the Valley We had a frightening experience similar to the one which occurred in Robles Del Rio... We believe you are right to inform the community that such incidents do occur and too, that the names of repeating offenders should be published The time has come for interested and responsible residents (particularly parents!) to work together in an effort to improve the situation.

Meanwhile keep up the good work.

Sincerely,
The Charles V. Bingham Family

Dear Mrs. Branch:

Over the past months, we have read with growing concern your coverage of the Valley youth "problem." And now, your issues of February 12 and 19 have made it impossible for us not to speak out....

Of course, we are all entitled to enjoy life, without fear of harassment. And we believe that you have been doing what you thought was a service to our community in protecting this privilege. But our young people must be accorded this right, too!

What took place on Lower Circle was naturally annoying to the neighbors, and ill-advised and inconsiderate behavior on the part of the boys. But did that justify your tarring them with your "bad apple" brush? You left no doubt that you considered these boys hoodlums, and that you expected us to swallow the story of one soldier, as young and foolish as the rest of them, hook, line and sinker.

We cannot approve of your tactics, no matter how well-intentioned. Even our limited understanding of human behavior points up the dangers involved in assuming that all teenagers are "toughs" and in telling them so, again and again. If this assumption were correct, by what miracle do most of us manage to become respectable again at majority?...

We suggest that you print only those cases which are documented, with names, and refuse to be pressured by your "irate subscribers" and other fear-motivated individuals into the type of rabble-rousing which has been going on lately. You can, and should, be a powerful voice in our community. But let's have it a constructive voice for good!

Sincerely,
Walter B. & Mary E. Avis

Editor's Reply:

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Avis,

At this point we believe that argument over who was to blame for a single unpleasant incident or whose version of it should be believed would only divert from the main issue. The point is that the peace of the community has been repeatedly disturbed.

This situation should not continue.

Every week this paper reports some worthwhile youth activities and achievements -- social, athletic, academic, etc. So we do not see how anyone can seriously conclude that we "assume all teen-agers are toughs."

Only a few, through repeated offenses, earn the label "bad apple." This is not our term, but one we heard used in the community with sufficient frequency that we adopted it.

Were these repeated offenders all teenagers the problem would be less serious. But some of them have reached majority -- and have evidently not become, as you put it, "respectable again."

If any young person feels "harassed" by these statements, we can only refer to the old adage, "if the shoe fits...." B.B.

Outlook Gains Volunteer Police Reporter

Rex Pryer of Rancho Road has volunteered to serve the Outlook by checking daily the records in the Sheriff's Monterey substation.

Pryer, an attorney, is associated with the legal firm of Hoge, Fenton, Jones and Appel. In answering the request in last week's Outlook, Pryer identified himself as "living across the road from Los Laureles Lodge -- where all the persimmons are." He has been a Valley resident for 1-1/2 years, having come from Modesto, where he was a deputy district attorney.

"I have been interested in the problem of offenders between the ages of 18 and 22," he explained. "We had a similar situation in Modesto -- but it was worse, there."

The Pryers have 2 young daughters, one 4 years of age and one an infant, so, Pryer pointed out, he had no personal involvement with older youth of the Valley and no reason for prejudice.

The Outlook will now have the legal right to print the names of juveniles who are arrested. It is not the intent of this paper to report first offenders, however. The policy for the present will be to report the names only of those who have been arrested on previous occasions.

SADDLE SOAP For The Horsey Set

The Guadalupe Red Shirts will be host to Region 6 on Sunday, March 9. The meeting will begin at 10:00 a. m. For reservations, write Mary Looper, 15076 Brewster Ave., San Jose, phone 377-1356. Brunch will be served from 11:00 a. m. at $1.75 per person.

There will be an interclub dance for members and guests of the Interclub League on March 7 at Portuguese Hall, Natividad Road, Salinas. All Horsemen are welcome!

A REMINDER: St. Patrick's Dinner Dance

$7.00 per couple includes dinner and dancing to Ray Gaines' 5 piece band. Tickets in Carmel at Scott's Silver & Leather Shop, in the Valley at the Hayloft, CV Market, Joanne's, Village Market, or Farm Center Store. Those unable to pick up tickets must make reservations by calling Social Chairman Ky Dahle, phone 659-4204.

NO TICKETS WILL BE SOLD AT DOOR. Last year, at the first annual dance Al Fry and the staff at Carmel Valley Inn did a heroic job of whipping up more than 60 additional dinners because of the unexpected attendance. While club members were delighted at the success of the event, they are determined not to put Al, Tom Oliver, and their helpers through such a last-minute furor again.

Benefit For Books Family Fun & Games

Carmelo Parents Club will present its annual "Family Fun & Games Night" on Friday March 13, from 7:30 through 10:00 p. m. at the Carmel Valley Community Center. Everyone in the Valley is cordially invited, with contributions earmarked for the library fund for Carmelo School. Baby-sitters will be provided.

That there will be "prizes, prizes and more prizes" is promised by Mrs. Edwin Lee, president of the Parents Club. A committee of mothers is even now canvassing for donations from merchants the length of the Valley from Carmel Rancho through the Village. There are 67 of these, says Mrs. Lee and the canvassers include the Mesdames Milton Frumkin, Jimmie Lyon, Glen Salyers, John Otter, and Margaret O'Day. Rev. James Brock aids in this endeavor as well. Mrs. Kenneth Copsy is chairman.

Mothers' March Nets Nearly $600

BY JEANNINE BOTTARO

The Mothers' March of Dimes, a first-time event in the Valley, was a rewarding success, according to Billie Mans who headed the drive. Although the workers were untried in putting on the March here in the valley, and even though they got a late start they succeeded in raising almost $600.

The chairman expressed her warm gratitude for the spontaneous cooperation of all her captains and workers. She is herself a new Valley dweller, coming here to retire, with the rank of major, after serving 20 years as an Army nurse. She has made her home for the last two years on La Paloma in Robles del Rio.

She had as her co-chairman Mrs. Larry Cummings who did much hard work in helping organize the drive here. Their captains included Mrs. Robert Drew, Mrs. H. A. Tarbox, Mrs. Charles Gansel, Mrs. S. W. Blandin, Miss June Wood, Mrs. Gerald Petkus, Mrs. Lyndon Egli, Mrs. Edwin McPhee and Mrs. T. G. Bottaro. Mrs. Egli's team scored highest in collections, representing about one third of the total, and one of their workers, Mrs. W. G. B. Hatch, received the highest amount of all the workers in the entire drive. She spent the entire day visiting in her area, was invited out to lunch and dinner and says she never had such a wonderful time!

Village Cleanup By Cub Scouts

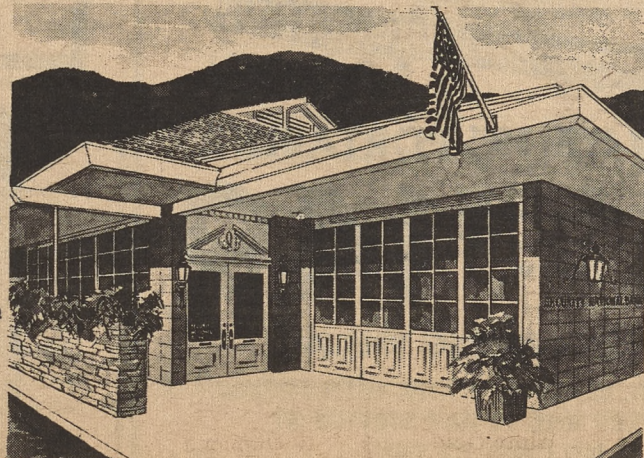

Cubs of Den 3, Pack 76 had their first experience in community service last week, and were most enthusiastic, reports their Den Mother, Mrs. Bob Ray.

Cub Scouts are supposed to build goodwill, and cleaning up the litter in Carmel Valley Village was the appropriate project of David Allaire, Stephen Avis, Joey Bottaro, Teddy Hall, Ricky Jones, Robbie Ray, Timmie Ray, Donnie Vonarx, Billy Viljoen, and Starker White. The boys range in age from 8 to almost 11.

The merchants were so appreciative, Mrs. Ray said, that the boys really were gratified. Later, Art Bennett served ice-cream bars all around from Carmel Valley Market.

Gardiner's Tennis Ranch Pro Moves to Valley

Pat Morgan, tennis pro who has been with John Gardiner's Tennis Ranch for nearly a year, has now moved to Robles Del Rio -- next to the Lodge with her mother, Mrs. Katherine Waldenburgh.

Pat was a ranking player in the U.S. as a junior, learned tennis originally because her father, who retired recently, was a tennis professional also.

Pat taught for 5 years in Los Angeles, where she was born, then taught 10 years in New Jersey at the Montclair Golf Club. During this decade she developed ranking junior players in the East.

Also at Gardiner's Tennis Ranch, having returned after an interim of teaching at the Yakima Valley Tennis Club, is Roland Jacobson. He hails from Seattle, Washington, and recently graduated from Cal Poly where he was number one Doubles and number two Singles player.

Pat says both she and Roland are enthusiastic about tennis in any form, but, particularly enjoy teaching at the Tennis Ranch because "it is so well-planned for instructing both beginners and advanced players, either in groups or individually".

Mrs. Elizabeth Hoisington of the Carmel Valley office of Dovolis Realty says, "We have received more responses to our ads in the Outlook than we have to advertising in any other paper."

Little League Registration Saturday At CV Firehouse

Boys 8 through 12 are to register this Saturday, February 29, at the Firehouse in Carmel Valley to "play ball" in Little League.

The boundaries are anywhere in Carmel Valley from Via Mallorca to Jamesburg.

Boys must bring (1) a birth certificate or photo copy and (2) a parent. If his 13th birthday occurs before August 15, 1964, he is not eligible for Little League and should look to one of the Leagues for older boys.

One of several changes this year is that the older boys who played last year must also register, as if it were their first time out, according to Tom Waters, one of the Team Managers.

If a parent "can't make it" with his boy on Registration Day, it is advised that he see Mr. Waters at his office in the Village Shopping Center on Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday.

Last year several boys who were not properly registered were unable to play.

"Let's get all the kids in this year!" urges Waters.

1 Boy + 1 Parent + 1 Birth Certificate = Baseball!

MORE TEAMS?

Will there be more teams in Carmel Valley Little League next summer as rumored among the boys? It's a big maybe, but who knows -- out of the mouths of Babes, they say! It's up to the kids more than anyone. If they register next Saturday in sufficient numbers, the officials will be glad to work something out.

"The more the merrier" say the men who give so much for the good of our youngsters.

If there are more young Valleyites "around", as the kids say, it is conceivable that registration might be big enough to allow 6 teams.

MINOR LEAGUE

"Farm System" is the more popular name applied to our minor league. Here the 8 year olds start playing baseball. They take it seriously as is natural with an American boy, but also with the knowledge that next year they'll be trying out in the Majors.

Almost every season there have been boys called up from the Farm teams to play with the big teams, and this creates one of the proudest days in a young boy's life. They seem to grow about 2 inches taller when they change into that big team uniform!

Those 8 to 12 year old boys who move here too late to register and be assigned also play in Farm League, as well as those older boys who do not "make" the major teams.

If an older boy fails to register for the season, he does not automatically play in the Farm System. They too must run by the book and in orderly fashion!

LONGER SEASON?

First Meeting For New Council

BY STEVE MEADOWS

The newly elected officers of the CJHS student body met Wednesday, February 19, in their first student council meeting of the semester. Mel Grimes, last semester's president, installed the new officers to take the top four places in the student body government.

The newly installed officers are: president, Steve Meadows; vice-president, Raymond Baga; secretary, Sheila Grunwaldt; and student court judge, Doug Adams.

The student council members chosen for this semester are: Wendy Lefler, Alan Koontz, Cindy Tracy, Bill Edwards, Mickey Miyamoto, Rolie Champe, Ron Harrison, Howard Buck, Wayne Tao, Kim Dennis, John Crush, Louis Machado, Margie Carter, Christine Sullivan, Steve Burnett, Dave Baga, Nancy Coss, Richard Roberts, Tia Hennesy, Mickey Marinkovich, Doug Hunter, and Helen Elston.

Student council meetings will be held approximately every other week, with exception of student court judge, who may call private meetings whenever he sees fit. The student court judge and his seven jurors may meet whenever a sufficient amount of littering tickets have been received. Tickets are served to campus "litterbugs."

Noted Newsmen Visits Peninsula

BY JIM SWEENEY

On Friday, February 14, a selected group of privileged Carmel Junior High School students were invited to attend a press conference for the world renowned newsmen, Howard K. Smith.

The event was held at Monterey Peninsula College where a group of local newsmen, photographers and students assembled to hear Smith speak.

Following his brief speech the assembled group was invited to ask questions. The questions covered, mainly, the Johnson administration and the forthcoming elections. Mr. Smith expressed his views on the ability of certain candidates for the Republican Presidential nomination. It was his opinion that the incumbent Democratic President, Mr. Johnson will most likely also be our next President.

The conference closed with an ovation from the crowd, and Mr. Smith left in preparation for a lecture that night at the college.

Going Once, Twice, Sold!

BY ADRIANN RICUPERO

Mrs. Beatrice Picard's 9th grade, fourth period English class has tried a new experiment. On February 10 they had a very successful book auction.

Students who owned paper-back books that they had read brought them to class until there was a collection of approximately forty books. Then they were auctioned off by the class auctioneer, Kay McCombs.

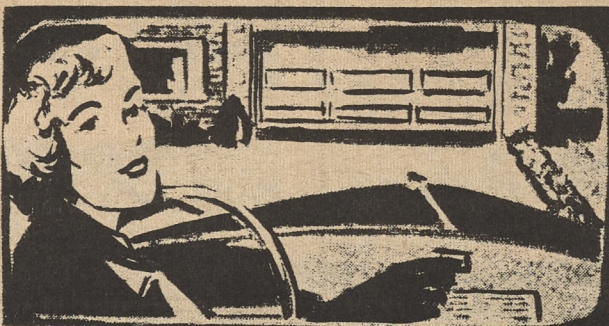

The auction had amazingly good results. Many people who bought books originally for 35 cents found that their books were being auctioned off for 50 and 60 cents.

The original owner was given all profits from the book after it was sold, so at the close of fourth period there were to be seen a few future J. Paul Gettys strutting out the door.

The auction was such a huge success that the class hopes to have them more often; but the success of the auction does not cease here, it will be enjoyed as its buyers linger over their prizes.

Book Reviews
for CV Women's Club Lunch
BY JULIE POWER

The Carmel Valley Women's Club will have a luncheon meeting on Wednesday, March 4, at the Carmel Valley Community Center, after which Mrs. Betty Antoncich will give two book reviews. First, the well-known local author will present a short review of "Good and Evil" by Ernest Gann, who was at one time a Monterey Peninsula resident. The book itself is based on San Francisco. Next she will review Taylor Caldwell's new book, "Grandmother and the Priest", which is not a religious story but deals with the superstitions and lore of England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales. Mrs. Antoncich certainly has the capability of bringing out the charm of this best seller!

BETTY ANTONCICH

Mrs. Antoncich, our own Valley resident, for three years wrote the Carmel Valley social and club news column in the Monterey Herald, and now has written a first novel of her own which is in the process of publication.

Lunch will be served promptly at 12:00 o'clock so the delicious Swedish Meat Balls won't get cold. Mrs. John Tregea is chairman of the lunch committee and has assisting her Major Billie Mans, Miss Sade Oppenheimer, and Mesdames Edwin Riddell, George Sanford, Vera Stokes, Robert Stone, S. T. B. Johnson, Paul Morenz, Jacob Zarski, Raymond Slingerland and Thomas Quarteroni.

Members may invite guests, or anyone interested in joining the Women's Club may contact the Membership Chairman, Mrs. Thomas B. McKiernon.

Beatrice Testa to Dallas Cerebral Palsy Convention

Mrs. John F. Testa of Carmel Valley has been named official delegate to the United Cerebral Palsy Association's 14th annual conference in Dallas, Texas during the first week of March. She will join some 600 delegates from all sections of the country to hear nationally-known authorities in the field of medicine and education give new information and ideas for developing better services for the cerebral palsied.

Mrs. Testa is president of Central Coast Tri-County affiliate of United Cerebral Palsy.

the Outlook on Carmel

Editorial : RETURN to PARADISE

It is an unforgettable experience to drive south 2,000 miles through desert, high mountain, tropical jungle and arrive at a unique hillside town on the shore of one of the most beautiful bays in the world... Puerto Vallarta.

But it is a more unforgettable experience to drive north over the same route and come to another unusual town on the hills above another bay of the Pacific Ocean.... Carmel.

Motels, restaurants, apartment houses and shops are crowding the beach at Vallarta.

Hillsides are being denuded of palms to build spacious villas. Debris from this construction, and a new shored road, spills into picturesque coves. A year ago this despoliation of jungle and shore did not exist.

Last year burros, pigs, a few taxis, an occasional jeep or truck disputed the right away on the narrow cobbled streets. Now a fleet of taxis, also sports cars, campers, many jeeps and trucks have almost won the battle.

Commercial and private planes arrive crowded at the new airport... from north, east and south... jets are expected soon. There is now a weekly newspaper but still no telephones.

This year Puerto Vallarta expects to garner two and one-half million American tourist dollars.

Little of this "progress" story is new to a Carmelite. What is new is the lack of strict protective controls.

So it was that our return to Paradise was not the anticipated arrival in Puerto Vallarta... but the coming home to Carmel.

Every Carmelite is immeasurably indebted to the forward-looking citizens who preserved our beach. Also to those who have served on later city councils and planning commissions or in any way undauntedly fought the undesirable aspects of "progress" in a tourist town.

To them it may have seemed a losing battle... but it wasn't.

I wish they could see what is happening to Vallarta! M. L.

WILDERNESS PRESERVATION

The Bobcat is named for its short tail, but the term "wildcat", also used, is equally appropriate -- for it's a ferocious fighter. The plight of the bobcat in the face of "progress" is one of the features of Emerson Scott's Audubon Wildlife film, "Our Changing Heritage," to be shown at Sunset Auditorium at 8:00 on Friday, February 28, as 4th in this year's series of 5. The film takes the audience on a tour of the west during the 4 seasons, investigating the changes being wrought by man, asking how much and what part of its land should the nation leave untouched.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT WINS HONORS

Five members of Carmel High School's senior class have been selected as finalists for National Merit scholarships and were presented with certificates of merit at last week's school board meeting.

Warren Edwards, principal of the high school, noted that this was the highest number of winners in one class in Carmel's history and also a very high percentage in relationship to the number of students in the class.

Receiving their awards with the congratulations of the Board were Steve Arnot, Elisabeth Bobbs, Mary Hearn, James Miller and Richard Whitelaw. These students will now compete for the scholarships on the basis of their scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test and financial need.

Carmel's senior class also has twelve semifinalists in the California State Scholarship program. They are Willa Gerber, Kathleen Goulding, John Graham, Richard Johnson, Steve Johnson, James Miller, James Purvis, Susan Rennels, Lawrence Sheingold, Andrew Smith, John Tracey, and Kenneth Wiese.

HENRY IV

BY KATI FRY CORSAUT

A good performance of a rather difficult play opened at the Golden Bough Circle Theater last Friday evening. Henry IV by the late Italian playwright Luigi Pirandello was performed by a cast of very competent players led by Nick Zanides as the supposedly mad Henry.

Under the direction of Fred Rider, Marcia Hovick and Ron Martin turned in quite convincing roles. Fred Rider lent sparkle and humor to his part as Baron Tito Belcredi.

The high quality of this and many other plays at the Circle Theater are due to the hard work and devotion of Mr. Rider. Although this particular work is not what the average playgoer would term thoroughly entertaining, the attempt to give Carmel some serious drama is commendable and worthwhile.

The costumes were true to the period, although less effective when the audience is so close to the stage. The stage setting was most effective in its design and simplicity.

The whole cast deserves mention, for they all did a fine job. Kudos to Penelope Nesbitt, Tom Arnol and Terry Poland for very good work in demanding roles.

DOLORES AT FIFTH CARMEL

Surf beats by Marjory Lloyd

TROPICAL EVENING

Two weeks ago in the soft tropical twilight of Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, former Valleyites Margaret and Bert Dienelt gave a party in their home Casa del Puente.

As the sun set over the Pacific, the guests sat on the tiled terrace cantilevered over the rippling Rio Cuale and watched the last washerwomen gather their dried laundry spread on the rocks below, bundle it, then with the bundle balanced on their heads join the throng passing to and fro on the bridge. The fascinating life of a Mexican town nestled between high palm-forested mountains lay below.

The Dienelts' home, surely one of the most fascinating in Mexico, and constructed almost entirely of materials native to the Vallarta region, everywhere displayed the artistic taste of its owners and Maggie's love of color and appreciation of native crafts.

But the guests were, all but two, from the Valley or Carmel. They included Herb and Jane Vial, Will Fay, Mandy Webb, and Frank and Marjory Lloyd.

Mandy Webb declared he was "the most house-conscious person in Vallarta". The foundations and a few feet of the walls of his house high on the hill above the town had already been constructed.

The Vials and the Lloyds are now home but last week callers at Casa del Puente were Bob and Lilli Smith and Stuyvesant Fish. The Smiths are due home today but Stuyvie will fly to Guatemala before returning to Palo Corona Ranch.

WEEKEND GUESTS

There was reminiscing all last weekend at the Mark Raggett home during the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Morris of San Francisco. The Raggetts and the Morris travelled together this fall in Europe.

The Raggetts' olderson, Lt. j. g. Michael M. Raggett is now stationed at Mare Island and able to visit his parents on weekend leaves. He graduated first in his class at the U. S. Navy submarine school in New London, Connecticut, at the end of January, then came home for a week before going to nuclear submarine school at Mare Island. At the end of six months there he will attend reactor school in Idaho.

BAIR IN NEW JERSEY

Carmel School Superintendant Medill Bair traveled last week to Atlantic City, New Jersey, to speak before the American Association of School Administrators, a department of the National Education Association. The topic of Mr. Bair's speech was the organization of school administration.

PARTY FOR DEMOCRATS

More than 1,000 active members of the Democratic Party in Monterey County were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Boit Morse in Pebble Beach on February 16.

Introduced to the guests were prospective Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives from the 12th Congressional District. They were Sanford Bolz and James T. May of Salinas, Richard Miller of Pacific Grove and Alvin Rhodes of San Luis Obispo.

State Senator Fred Farr (D-Carmel) greeted his many supporters during the party which followed the presentation of the Congressional aspirants.

IN NEW HOME

Mrs. Lise Tescher has moved into a new home on Viscaino Street in the Eighty Acres section of Carmel. "It's between the Mayor's and the fire chief's houses," is the way she describes her new location.

SUNSET OFFICERS

Spring semester student body officers at Sunset School are Richard Wilkinson, president; Charles Schetter, vice president; and Jerry White, secretary.

Additional class representatives are Ted Chapman, John Duhring, Joey DeMaria, Florence Hoffman, Marcia Read and Barbara Woodbury.

On February 18 Principal Orville Rogers installed the new officers during a special assembly in the auditorium.

FIRST BIRTHDAY

Anna Williams was one year old on Washington's Birthday. Her parents Johnny and Lucinda Williams gave a dinner party in honor of the occasion. Anna, surrounded by grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins, took her first steps for the admiring group. At the party were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lloyd, Anna's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Baylis of Menlo Park and Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. (Skip) Lloyd, uncles and aunts, and cousins Owen and Lloyd Baylis and Peter Lloyd. Missing from the family group were two of Anna's aunts, Kate Williams of Phoenix, Arizona, and Mardi Morse of San Luis Obispo. The latter shares her birthday with her only niece.

BACKGROUND SEMINAR

THE NEGRO PROTEST

In 1964 the Negro drive for civil rights will continue. How will it effect our community, our state and our nation? To resolve the contradiction between our precept of equality and our practice, we must be better informed. Max Tadlock, faculty member of the Monterey Peninsula College, will conduct a background seminar sponsored by the Unitarian Church of the Monterey Peninsula. Many points of view will be heard on each topic during the ten weekly meetings. If you want to join the seminar send enrollment fee of $10.00 (which includes reading materials) to the Unitarian Church Office, 580 Calle Principal, Monterey. Admission will be on the basis of the earliest enrollments received.

Nishimura Festive Luau

Admirable gyrations on the part of the famous Paradize Hula Maids, especially imported for the gala occasion, astounded and delighted 175 guests at the Hawaiian Luau held on Sunday, February 16, by Col. and Mrs. Bert Nishimura and their son, Al, of Carmel, at the Tin Barn Auditorium at the Presidio of Monterey.

The Luau, the Nishimuras explained on a printed menu listing the authentic Hawaiian dishes served to their guests, was "our way of giving you a tremendous ALOHA and saying MAHOLO (Thank You) for your good wishes on Colonel Nishimura's promotion."

Friends of the Nishimuras from Alameda, Oakland, and Berkeley as well as Fort Ord decorated the barn in tropical fashion, prepared the "kaukau", distributed paper leis as a compliment to every guest, waited on table, furnished music and the remarkable dancing exhibition.

The Nishimuras invited not only their military associates, but friends from all over the Peninsula and a contingent from Stanford Research Institute's research office at Fort Ord.

Following the dinner and entertainment, Master of Ceremonies Arturo Nishimoto coaxed some of the bolder guests onto the stage for a hula lesson.

Seniors Tour

Mrs. Olive Walker, chairman of Monterey Peninsula Senior Tours, which includes all senior centers on the Peninsula, announces that there are a few reservations for the Spring European trip available to non-members if made before March 1.

The trip, which departs May 1 for a month's tour is scheduled to visit Copenhagen, Hamburg, Amsterdam, Munich, Rome, Nice, Paris, London, Edinburgh, New York, flying via Scandinavian Air Service.

Information may be obtained by calling Carmel Foundation, MA 4-1588 or Mrs. Walker, FR 3-1152.

Little League

All boys, 8-12 years old, who wish to play on 1964 Carmel Little League teams are asked to sign up March 2 or 3 in the student activities room of Carmel Junior High School at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Robert Forbes, chairman, and other members of the Little League Auxiliary will be in charge of the sign-up sessions.

Boys who played last year must sign up again this year. New players must bring proof of age (not 12 before August 12). This proof will be returned to them, according to Barney Laiolo, Carmel Little League president.

Saturday Movies for Carmel Children

Movies for children are being shown every Saturday afternoon at the All Saints' Church in Carmel. Films are carefully selected for presentation. There are many Walt Disney films, documentary films of interest to children, and so forth, in both color and black and white. Typical selections have been "Lassie", "Dumbo", "Story of Seabiscuit", "Alice in Wonderland," and so forth.

Parents of students in the Bishop Kip School present the performances starting at 2:00 p. m. and assist in caring for the youngsters at the show. Admission is free, but a donation is asked for the school's building fund. Birthday parties are welcome!

Information may be had by calling Mrs. Palmer Beaudette, 624-3180, Mrs. Alvin Andrus, 624-4527 or Mrs. Donnan Jeffers, 624-7910.

Of 82 students now attending the Bishop Kip School, 41 are from Carmel and the Valley.

WHY LADIES' HEELS WEAR OUT

The average lady buys three pairs of shoes a year, one pair every four months. Her step is 26 inches. This means she take 2,437 steps to the mile or 12,185 steps every five miles. In a five-mile day a lady weighing 120 pounds hammers 731 tons of bone and troubles into her heels. A steel hammer weighing 120 pounds coming down at that rate would have to be replaced every three weeks and would have to be fished out of a hole a mile deep at the end of four months. This proves that a lady's heels have a right to wear out. We replace them in 3 minutes.

Music on the Peninsula

BY MARY LINDSAY OLIVER

There was a time when duets were played on one piano as a drawing-room entertainment. Rarely have professional couples performed on concert tours. The famous Menuhin's sister, Yaltah, with experienced pianist Joel Rycie, in MPC's MusicHall "Professional Series" ably proved the reason for their international reputation in this almost lost art. The audience which overflowed despite every extra chair obtainable realized the fine musical comprehension and technical equipment these artists exhibited in the Beethoven Marches, Schumann Fantasy, Brahms Waltzes and Mendelssohn Andante and of the changes under consideration this spring. League President Les Burdett is negotiating to have the field "done" professionally. This could effect an early start by three weeks and would be a boon to the boys.

To Play Ball, Bring Parent & Certificate

George Eckerd, U. S. N. League Player Agent, will be coordinating with the school officials to avoid interference with their softball schedule.

It is hoped that George can also coordinate with the weatherman and his long-range forecast! Baseball season is for the kids and the longer it is the more they can learn of the sport and sportsmanship. A longer season should start earlier rather than finish later, in order to avoid interference with family vacations.

ALL VALLEY

Last year, the area-team aspect was voted out of existence and every team is now ALL-Valley, meaning the players may come from Via Mallorca, Jamesburg, or any point between. This year the teams will be more "mixed-up" so to speak, than before. A fringe benefit is the bringing together of children and parents throughout the Valley for mutual acquaintanceship.

On the other hand, last year's practice of building teams with boys from all parts of the Valley made for a lot of extra transportation, which the parents naturally do not favor too highly.

It has been an odd coincidence, several years in a row, that "they just seem to grow boys bigger in the Mid Valley," so it was thought better to split up the geographical groups and distribute the big lugs so that no one team would have too much advantage.

One way around the problem would be if the Mid-Valley came up with TWO complete teams this year. Perhaps there are enough boys for that now! The players could be carefully traded to avoid building one team too much heavier than another, and the transportation problems would be eased at the same time. It's a possibility that depends on how much the population of that area has grown since last year.

Variations that filled half the program. Dynamics, nuance, rhythms and feeling stamped both performers 'par excellence' and en rapport with each other as they changed places from treble to bass so that each had opportunity to lead in melodic lines that in the period of the composers used were so romantically attractive and logically clear. Strange how so many of today's composers try to avoid beauty of tone or melody!

The Hindemith and Stravinsky works that followed displayed the tensions and excitement of modern expression requiring extraordinary digital strength and speed which the players met with extraordinary ability. The Stravinsky Petrouchka, well known in orchestral performance was the high light of all the brilliant offerings and pulled the huge audience to its feet in applause to which were added extras, an Italian Polka by Moszkowski and pieces by Sinding and Dvorak. Interesting to note was the fact that the Brahms fascinating Waltzes were played from the composer autographed version for duet form he made in 1875.

FIRST AID CALLS

Three first aid calls were made during the week by members of the Ambulance crew of the Volunteer Fire Department. Karl D. Mathiot was transported from Rancho Carmelo to the Community Hospital February 15 at 9:08 p. m. for treatment of a possible concussion. Dr. Vincint O'Connor of 276 Esquiline Road received first aid and was taken to the Community Hospital for further treatment on February 16. At 11:00 p. m., February 17, the first aid unit was called to transport occupants involved in a one-car accident near the Bucket on East Carmel Valley Road to the Community Hospital. Jack Lantron, of San Juan Batista received arm abrasions, Gerald A. Cancilla, Salinas, received bruises and Bobby Bleasley, also from Salinas, received facial lacerations. Miss Bleasley was later transferred to the County Hospital in Salinas.

FIRE CALLS

The Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department was called to Children's House February 12 at 8:50 a. m. where damage amounting to $25 was caused by defective butane furnace wiring. On February 14 at 9:24 p. m. the department answered an alarm at the Jerry Petkus residence on Cummings Road where an estimated $100 worth of damage was done to the shake roof due to faulty flue installation.

Valentine's day for patients at the Monterey County Hospital in Salinas was made just a little brighter thanks to the efforts of Brownie Scout Troop #2134. The children made 200 decorated place mats under the guidance of troop leaders Mrs. George Baker and Mrs. Lester Golden.

The Kenny Baker family who made their home on Poppy and Miltz Roads have moved to San Martin.

The Jack Swansons returned from Nevada to their home on the Cachagua in time to celebrate their daughter Wendy's ninth birthday. Wendy invited friends to a dinner party and to spend the night. The party pinata, an appealing pink and blue kangaroo complete with a baby in its pouch, was just too special to be broken so Wendy divided the prizes and candies among her guests and still has "Roo" intact. Children attending were Nancy Walker, Gail Nason, Molly O'Neal, Tricia Gardner, Robin White, Kristin and Cash Swanson.

Donald Cummings, II, is home from a four day seminar at the home office of Aetna Life Insurance Co. in Hartford, Conn. Don was chosen as one of the top 90 insurance representatives in the nation to become a member of the Leaders Club, a national honorary organization. An associate with the firm of McCreery, Allaire, and Tomlinson, Don made the trip with two day stops in Mexico City and New York.

Skiing last weekend on the slopes of Stateline Park South Tahoe were Joyce and Walt Patton of Valle Vista Drive. The Pattons were invited to join former residents, Jan and John Marchant of Palo Alto on a ski trek and sent a hurry up call to Oregon for ski gear that had been stored since last used at Crater Lake National Park.

Busy Mrs. Thomas (Lorraine) Twohig added new duties to an already full schedule when she was installed as vice president of the Lawyers Wives of Monterey County at a luncheon last week at the Frontier Town Inn in Salinas.

Officers were elected for the new year when Auxiliary members of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department met last week at the Phelps Way home of Mrs. Mark Hattan. Incoming officers include Mrs. George Palmer, president; Mrs. Richard McKenzie, vice president; Mrs. William 'Bud' Hall, recording secretary; Mrs. John Woods, treasurer, and Mrs. Charles Gansel, corresponding secretary. An installation dinner will be held in April.

Sis Ammerman has returned from Vista, California where she visited with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Staples and their children, Debbie, Bobby, Dee Ann and Donna Sue.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanton of Scarlett Road entertained with a dinner party last weekend to introduce their fourteen guests to their daughter, Shanna, who has been attending school in the east and their son, Mike, a student at Hartnell. Always a work of art, Virginia Stanton's dinner table was a stunning combination of pewter place settings complimenting a center piece of Mexican green glass candle holders and water lilies.

Kennett Friddle, former Valley ite now stationed with the Navy in Florida needed help from his entire company when he answered mail call on February 11. Ken's grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Love had written out his address on 65 slips of paper and given them out to friends who sent cards to be sure that Ken wouldn't have a chance to get homesick on his birthday.

EXCAVATION for Carmel Valley's community swimming pool was begun by board members (above) on Saturday, February 8 -- and completed, less than 4 days later, as a gift to Carmel Valley from the Berta brothers (using equipment slightly more modern than shovels.) Contractor Peter Ferry estimates that $2500 worth of construction was thus donated, and furthermore was lavish in his praise of the Bertas' speed and excellence of workmanship. Ferry predicts that pool construction will be completed within the next two months. Community Center Board members shown here are, left to right: Reverend Jim Brock, Lou Allaire, Doyt Early, Tom Verga, Mrs. Earle Wilsey, Jim (who has since had his hair cut) Smith, Don Cummings, Mrs. Lois Robinson, and Mrs. Mike Antoncich. A small Cummings is also in evidence.

New Fund Drive for CV Swim Pool

A new Swimming Pool Drive was inaugurated when the directors of the CV Community Center met at a special meeting recently. $7,000 is needed to complete the construction of the dressing rooms and the decking. A chairman will be appointed to consider the many money-making suggestions that have been offered and a definite program of events will be issued soon. Mrs. Leo Berta and Mr. Tommy Verga will co-chairman the Century Club committee, which hopes to triple its membership. Funds from the Century Club will be used to meet the mortgage payments.

A special vote of thanks was given to John Simpson of the Valley Rock and Adobe Co. and the Berta Brothers who made the excavation for the pool last week with such speed and accuracy. Their contribution in labor and equipment was over $2,500.

Board members report that the progress on the site is "really terrific," and invite those who made pledges for the pool to come and see -- also, to fulfill those pledges as soon as possible!

"For those who have been waiting to be sure the pool would become a reality, now is the time to make that donation," they add. Contributions may be made payable to the Carmel Valley Community Center, Carmel Valley, and sent to the same address.

CJHS Parents Club BY CHELSEA MILLER

Members of Carmel Junior High School were "fattened up" by Homemaking students when they visited the Homemaking Room after the Parents' Meeting.

Home made vanilla ice cream and a variety of cookies were served in a decorative style. Many of the parents were surprised to see the modern facilities and appliances used by the students.

School Funds Petition

Carmel teachers in cooperation with the California Teacher's Association last week were circulating a petition requesting top priority for school funds in the 1964 budget session of the state legislature.

The petition opposed plans for a county equalization fund which would place an increased tax burden on Carmel taxpayers without bringing any further financial assistance to Carmel schools. The petition requests that $100 million from surplus and improved State revenue, without new or increased taxes, be granted to increase school funds.

Mr. Charles Moody, social studies director at the high school and leader of this drive for signatures, stated that only in this way, through increased state appropriations without a county equalization fund, can California's schools, and particularly Carmel's, meet the increasing need for educational funds.

INCOME PROPERTY ON CARMEL POINT

The replacement value (but not the price) of these four, attractive, completely furnished, one-bedroom houses is in excess of $100,000. The income potential has never been fully tested. Over the years we've often been told, "If that property ever comes on the market, let me know immediately." But, as we knew the owner would never sell, we didn't keep a list. However, his heirs do want to sell it, so it's on the open market at $85,000. Call us for an appointment to inspect.

Some of those booked for the future are "Golden Age of Comedy" -- winner of 2 academy awards, "Kidnapped", "Prince and the Pauper" a full length animated technicolor feature, "Adventures of Mr. Wonderbird," and the Gold Medal winner in technicolor, "Proud Rebel".

Attendance has been growing slowly but steadily, reports Kit, with about 100 youngsters attending the 1:00 show and about 50 at the 3:00 show. He estimates a profit of $50 per week on the films after subtracting costs, plus an additional net on the snacks sold.

Civic Leaders to Confer with Sherriff vited and regretted very much his inability to attend because of a prior engagement.) Several of the delegates are members of more than one of the groups represented.

Plans for the visit were laid following a meeting of the CVPOA's board of directors last week during which the idea was proposed and approved. Invitations to the other groups were promptly issued and accepted.

In other action last week, the CVPOA's board of directors:

ADVISORY GROUPS

-- Appointed Ed Price as liaison person between the CVPOA and the Lower Valley Advisory Committee to the County Planning Commission; appointed Willard Dundore as liaison person with the Upper Valley Committee to the County Planning Commission. Purpose of the new plans for liaison, according to Col. Brown, is "to iron out any possible misunderstandings, through close communication, before these have a chance to arise."

TELEPHONE RATES

-- Moved to approach the Pacific Telephone Company with a request for investigation into telephone rates in the Mid-Valley area. Because Carmel Valley Village has its own exchange, rates are much less in the Upper part of the Valley, Col. Brown said. Members of the board feel that the increased population in the Mid-Valley in the past few years might well justify some similar arrangement or adjustment there.

FIRE DISTRICT

-- Willard Dundore was appointed to investigate and prepare a report on the organization of the Carmel Valley Fire District with a view toward possible inclusion of the Mid-Valley. Qualified insurance experts have repeatedly stated that by joining the CV Volunteer Fire District, Mid-Valley residents could cut fire insurance costs by half and would save considerably more than the district tax costs; this has proven true in the Upper Valley.

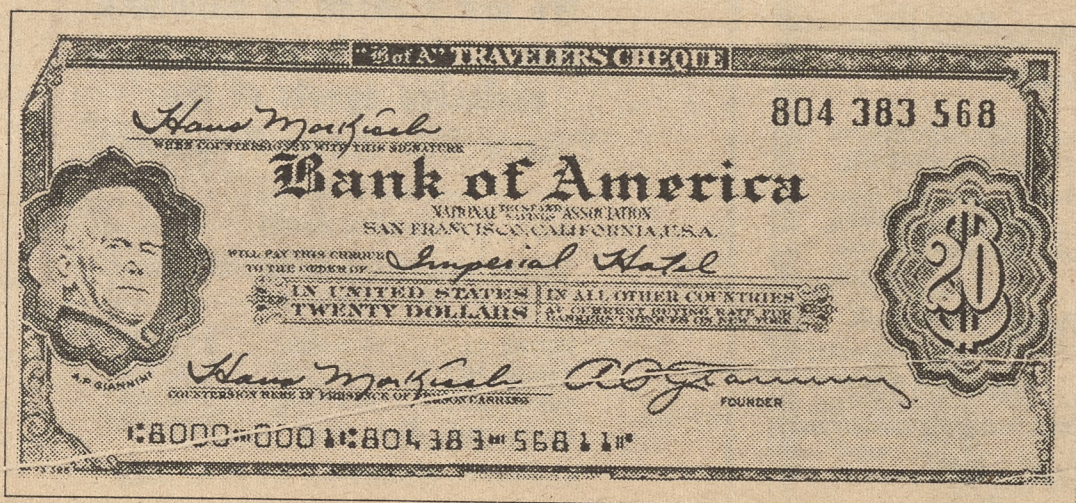

RENEWALS

-- Mrs. Robert Talbott was appointed chairman for a Membership Renewal Drive, which appears necessary since the 600 members of 1963 have been, in Col. Brown's words, "very slow" about sending in their renewals. These are $2 per year, should be made payable to CVPOA and sent to Box 157, Carmel Valley. New members are also welcome!

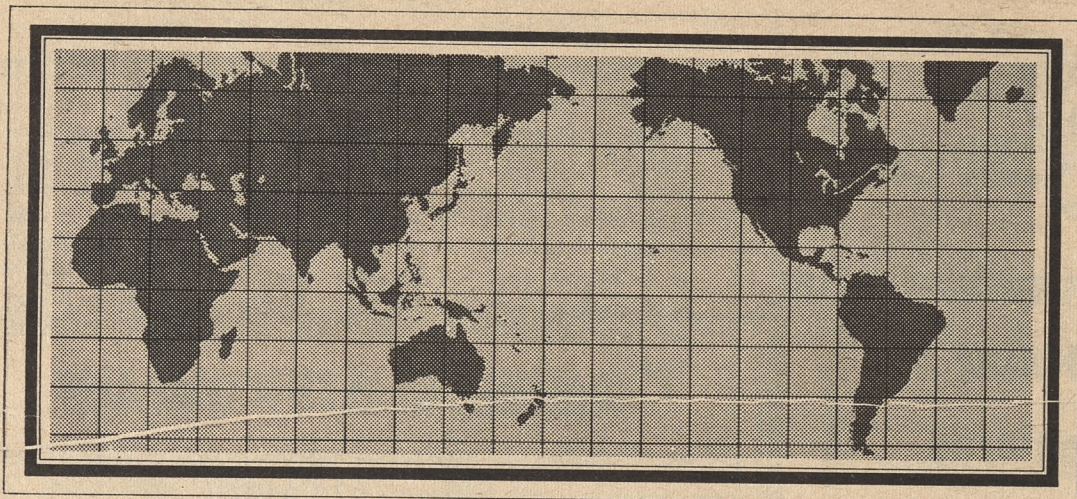

CHAPEL POTLUCK

Family potluck will be held Sunday, March 1 at 5:30 p. m. at the Carmel Valley Community Chapel, followed by a program designed to acquaint children, parents and all church members with the activities of the missions supported by the congregation in 1963.

Included will be a filmstrip, and personal news from organist Sunzah Park regarding to field work in Korea to which the chapel's Guilds contributed.
